

Dealer Certification

Dealer Certification actively addresses one of the main issues that has limited growth in our industry: customer service.

The dealership certification process features a set of standards for dealers to attain and provides tools that enable participants to enhance the retail experience and provide every customer with a positive retail experience, every time.

See <http://dealercertification.org> for more information.